An award-winning British Cinematographer with a wealth of experience shooting features and commercials. Malcolm is a specialist in stop frame cinematography having worked on many theatrical features to date; including several OSCAR & BAFTA nominated and winning films. His work on the 2014 feature, Still the Enemy Within helped to garner the respected audience award at The Sheffield Doc Festival. His experience in lighting is extensive, considered and discriminating, his attitude on set, collaborative and supporting. He enjoys shooting with many of the UK's most recognised production companies as a specialised DOP for stop motion, table top, food and motion control shoots.
